

THE CASE ACT: How It Will Work

How the CASE Act Small Claims Court Will Work in Practice

The Copyright Alternative in Small-Claims Enforcement Act (the “CASE Act”) was enacted into law on December 27, 2020. Once the CASE Act implementation is complete, it will create a low-cost and voluntary tribunal within the U.S. Copyright Office to handle certain small copyright claims brought by copyright owners and users of copyrighted works. The streamlined process for bringing and resolving a case before the CASE Act’s Copyright Claims Board (CCB) is outlined below:

This flowchart was created by the following organizations:

